PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

- E-Commerce & Recession-Resistant Property – Veterinary properties are extremely sought-after investments for their resistance to downturns in the economy and e-commerce trends that affect traditional retail properties.

- Very Passive Lease Structure – This investment offers a potential investor a passive “hands-off” investment for both local and national investors.

- Practice Acquired by Large Veterinary Operator – Specialist in Companion Animal Neurology was acquired by Compassion-First in 2018 because of the site’s strong, successful performance.

- Tenant Investment in Location – Veterinary Clinics rarely relocate due to difficulty retaining the same patients in a new location, and high costs of moving.

- Stable Florida Investment – NNN lease with 6 years remaining located in Clearwater, FL, making this a very stable investment for investors looking to acquire Florida Real Estate.

LOCATION HIGHLIGHTS

- Ideal Location – SCAN is located across the street from the Sunset Point 19 Shopping Mall with national retailers including Old Navy, CVS, Bed Bath & Beyond, Hobby Lobby, Sprouts, Cost Plus World Market, Burger King, Walmart Supercenter, etc.

- Extremely Dense, Tampa Bay MSA Real Estate – The asset caters to over 238,000 residents within 5-mile radius who boast an average household income of over $70,000.

- Strong Projected Population Growth – Significant population growth in the 1, 3, and 5-mile radius ranging from 5% - 7% in the last 8 years, and is projected to grow an additional 2% - 4% in the next 5 years.

- Income Tax-Free State (Tampa Bay MSA) – Florida has no state income tax for real estate investments. Properties tend to hold their value and appreciate stronger in the state of FL than surrounding states.

TENANT HIGHLIGHTS

- Compassion-First Pet Hospitals – Compassion-First is a national network of specialty and emergency veterinary hospitals. Compassion-First operates over 44 Specialty and Emergency Veterinary Hospitals and is valued at $1.2B or more than $29.6M per hospital.

- Private Equity Backing – Private Equity investment in Compassion-First by JAB Holdings Ltd., provides significant capital to expedite their expansion and acquisition of new hospitals across the country.

- Robust Industry Growth – The global veterinary services market size is expected to reach $142 Billion by 2025, with a CAGR of 5.6% during that period. Consumers spent over $95 Billion on their pets in 2019 and that number is expected to grow to $99 Billion in 2020.

TAMPA, FLORIDA

The City of Tampa is the largest city in Hillsborough County, is the county seat and is the third most populous city in Florida. It is located on the west coast of Florida, approximately 200 miles northwest of Miami, 180 southwest of Jacksonville, and 20 miles northeast of St. Petersburg. The population of the city represents approximately one-third of the total population of Hillsborough County. Tampa’s economy is founded on a diverse base that includes tourism, agriculture, construction, finance, healthcare, government, technology, and the port of Tampa. Tampa is part of the metropolitan area most commonly referred to as the “Tampa Bay Area”.

Tampa is part of the Tampa-St. Petersburg-Clearwater, Florida Metropolitan Statistical Area. The four-county area is composed of roughly 2.9 million residents, making it the second largest metropolitan statistical area in the state, and the fourth largest in the Southeastern United States, behind Miami, Washington, D.C., and Atlanta. The Greater Tampa Bay area has over 4 million residents and generally includes the Tampa and Sarasota metro areas.

In the next FIVE YEARS, Hillsborough County's population is projected to grow SIGNIFICANTLY FASTER than the state of Florida.

By 2022, Hillsborough County’s population will be nearly 1.5 MILLION.
EDUCATION

The Tampa MSA is a magnet for young, educated people. Hillsborough County’s millennial population is growing 13 percent faster than the nation as a whole, according to U.S. Census data. Three public universities located within a short drive of Tampa Bay – University of South Florida, University of Central Florida, and University of Florida – are home to more than 150,000 students, over 60 percent of whom will stay in Florida upon graduation. Tampa Bay has more than 80 colleges, universities, and technical schools producing thousands of graduates for area employers each year. Approximately 92,000 veterans are in the active labor force as well, offering employers an invaluable source of uniquely trained personnel.

The University of South Florida Muma College of Business boasts one of the nation’s best accounting schools, a top-ranked entrepreneurship center, a nationally-ranked MBA program, and a world-class research faculty. More than 2,200 students are enrolled in the Sykes College of Business at the University of Tampa, recognized by The Princeton Review as one of the top 300 business schools in the world for nine consecutive years. University of Tampa’s Sykes College of Business has also been ranked the 7th best for value for the price, beating out University of Notre Dame, Harvard University, and Duke University. Additionally, Hillsborough County Public Schools and Hillsborough Community College provide a variety of training programs for area employers, developing customized curriculum to meet specific business needs.
CULTURE
Tampa is home to many different performing arts venues, theaters, and museums. Popular theaters include David A. Straz Jr. Center for the Performing Arts, Tampa Theatre, and Gorilla Theatre. Some popular Tampa organizations include the Florida Orchestra, Opera Tampa, and Stageworks Theatre. One of the most popular museums in the area is the Museum of Science and Industry. It has several floors of exhibits that relate to science, as well as, the only domed IMAX theater in Florida.

EVENTS
One of the most well-known events in Tampa is the celebration of “Gasparilla,” a mock pirate invasion held every year since 1904. Residents often refer to the event as Tampa’s “Mardi Gras.” The invasion is led by the pirate ship, “Jose Gasparilla,” and is followed by numerous parades and city activities. This event brings in over 400,000 attendees and contributes tens of millions of dollars to Tampa’s economy.

SPORTS
Tampa has four professional sports teams: Tampa Bay Buccaneers (NFL), Tampa Bay Rays (MLB), Tampa Bay Lightning (NHL), and the Tampa Bay Rowdies (AFL). Each team has brought home victories and keep building a growing fan base, specifically in baseball. For decades, Major League Baseball has had spring training facilities and minor league baseball teams in the area. The New York Yankees hold their spring training in Tampa, which brings out a large crowd each year.
TOURISM
The city of Tampa operates over 165 parks and beaches covering 2,286 acres within city limits; 42 more in surrounding suburbs covering 70,000 acres are maintained by Hillsborough County. These areas include Hillsborough River State Park, just northeast of the city. Tampa is home to a number of attractions and theme parks, including Busch Gardens Tampa, Adventure Island, the Lowry Park Zoo, and the Florida Aquarium.

The Lowry Park Zoo features over 2,000 animals, interactive exhibits, rides, educational shows and more. The zoo serves as an economic, cultural, environmental and educational anchor in Tampa. Well-known shopping areas include International Plaza and Bay Street, Westshore Plaza, the SoHo district, and Hyde Park Village. Palma Ceia is home to the Palma Ceia Design District.

The Tampa Port Authority currently operates three cruise ship terminals in Tampa’s Channel District. The Port of Tampa is the year-round home port for Carnival Cruise Lines’ MS Carnival Inspiration and MS Carnival Legend.
ECONOMY

DEFENSE AND SECURITY
• Tampa Bay has emerged as a driving force behind the growing convergence of defense and technology, and as a leader in the defense and security industries. In addition to having one of the largest veteran workforces in the nation, Tampa Bay is home to MacDill Air Force Base, the only military installation that hosts two, four-star Combatant Commands, U.S. Central Command (USCENTCOM) and U.S. Special Operations Command (USSOCOM). Thirty-eight additional mission partners operating from MacDill AFB, as well as specialized security and intelligence firms, help to make Tampa and Hillsborough County a top market for defense contractors. Locally, a $14 billion military industry has developed around areas of community expertise, including cybersecurity and information technology, intelligence and analysis, training and simulation, and advanced manufacturing, with nascent opportunities in biotechnology and rehabilitative health. Tampa Bay has one of the largest veteran workforces in the country, with roughly 92,000 former service men and women in the metro area’s active labor pool and is home to nearly one-quarter of Florida’s 1.7 million veterans. MacDill AFB is also the largest employer in Hillsborough County, adding more than 15,000 highly trained military and civilian personnel to the talent pipeline, with the skills and security clearances desired by industry employers.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
• Florida is ranked third in the nation for high-tech establishments, and the Florida High Tech Corridor, anchored by the Tampa Bay region, has been named one of the top tech job hot spots in the United States. Holding 20 percent of the state’s IT positions, Tampa is ranked among the Top Ten Best American Cities to Work in Tech, according to SmartAsset. In the past five years, local IT jobs have grown at nearly twice the rate of overall average job growth, and are projected to increase by 10 percent over the next five-year period. Florida’s software and computer systems design and integration industry are one of the largest in the U.S., with nearly 12,600 firms. The Tampa metro area ranks first in Florida in terms of the concentration of .NET developers, data warehousing specialists, and Hadoop developers.

LIFE SCIENCES AND HEALTHCARE
• Over 3,000 life sciences and healthcare companies employing more than 62,100 workers operate in Tampa and Hillsborough County. Additionally, 14 percent of Florida’s biotech companies and 22 percent of the state’s pharmaceutical and medicine manufacturing workforce call the area home. Leading experts predict that over the next decade more than $1 trillion in healthcare spending will migrate to new players, new industry segments, and traditional companies that are delivering on value with an unrelenting focus on driving improved health outcomes and cost containment. The Tampa Bay region is gaining in global reputation as a growing hub for research and development in life sciences. USF Health, University of Tampa College of Natural & Health Sciences, Hillsborough Community College Health Sciences and Nursing programs, and Galen College of Nursing, along with emerging private industries, contribute to the region’s research and innovation as well as training the next generation of scientists, doctors, and technicians.
MANUFACTURING, DISTRIBUTION & LOGISTICS

- Manufacturing has a long history in Tampa Bay, where it is a source of innovation to a wide range of industries. From precise military specifications to the creation and development of medical devices and manufacturing in highly regulated industries, Tampa businesses are pioneering the art of modern manufacturing technology. As the industry shows continued signs of recovery and expansion, Tampa and Hillsborough County are well-positioned to leverage this momentum. Currently, there are more than 2,800 manufacturers in the county, representing over 63,000 employees. Tampa and Hillsborough County manufacturers who recently announced major expansions include James Hardie, Tampa Tampa/Florida Structural Steel, and Acoustiblok. Manufacturing is also vital to attracting investment from overseas. Close to 500 foreign-owned companies representing more than 40 nations have set up shop in Tampa Bay. Port Tampa Bay’s strategic location, at the intersection of the major east-west and north-south trade lanes and in close proximity to an expanded Panama Canal, makes it ideally positioned for businesses to benefit from expanded trade with Asia and the vibrant markets of Latin America. The Tampa International Airport (TPA) offers nonstop service to over 70 domestic and international destinations at fares lower than most major metro areas. Serving approximately 17 million people annually, TPA ranks among the top North American aviation facilities and has been consistently named one of the “most-loved” airports in the world.

FINANCIAL & PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

- Financial and Professional Services is big business in Tampa Bay. Nearly one in four business and information services firms in Florida call Tampa Bay home, including some of the top names in banking, finance, and insurance. Tampa earned the #3 spot for Most Cost-Friendly Business Locations Among Large U.S. Cities, outranking popular cities such as Dallas, Boston, and New York. Ten percent of the nation’s Fortune 50 and nine percent of the Fortune 100 companies’ shared services operations are located here. As the fastest growing industry segment in the Tampa metro area, professional and business services have year-over-year employment gains of 4.7 percent and a total workforce of more than 210,000.

CORPORATE HEADQUARTERS

- Tampa Bay is home to 19 corporate headquarters with over $1 billion in annual revenue, seven of which are Fortune 1000 companies. Almost 500 foreign-owned companies representing more than 40 nations are established in the community. As the commercial and industrial heart of the region, Hillsborough County – which includes the cities of Tampa, Plant City, and Temple Terrace – is a leading location for corporate site selection in North America. Companies operating in Tampa enjoy low labor costs, favorable corporate tax policies, no personal income tax, and stable, pro-business leadership. Collaboration between state and local government and industry has resulted in effective development packages, targeted financial incentives, expedited permitting, and streamlined regulatory processes. These conditions have made Hillsborough County an ideal place for companies such as Bristol-Myers Squibb, Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation, Citigroup, Amazon, and USAA.
